COMMUNITY NEWS

Irvine's "Woman of the Year"

In celebration of Women's History Month, Irvine's State Assemblymember Cottie Petrie-Norris hosts an annual "Woman of the Year" event to publicly honor women throughout the 73rd Assembly District for their extraordinary leadership and community service achievements.

We're excited to announce that Irvine's 2026 Woman of the Year is Noelle Smiley! Serving as Assistant Chief for the Irvine Police Department, Smiley is the second-in-command and a key leader in overseeing departmental operations, strategic initiatives, and community safety programs. Smiley started her career with the Los Angeles Police Department in 1997 and joined the Irvine Police Department in 2000.

New Transportation Program for Irvine Seniors

The City is now expanding mobility options for Irvine seniors 60 years of age and older with its new WeRide program, which is a same-day, on-demand transportation service powered by volunteer drivers.

Same-Day Older Adults Transportation
Powered by Volunteers

The program provides flexible, curbside-to-curbside rides for short, local trips to assist older adults with errands, appointments, and social visits. Seniors can request rides up to 15 minutes before their desired departure time via phone or an app.

Holo Holo Music Festival April 18, 2026 at 1pm. All Ages.

Celebrate the sounds of island and reggae music at the Holo Holo Music Festival, featuring SOJA, The Green, Iam Tongi, Sons of Zion, Three Plus, Joseph Soul, and Bo Napoleon.

Inspired by the spirit of holo holo — meaning “to travel, to sail, to move” — the festival began in 2022 at the Frost Amphitheater at Stanford University, bringing fans together to celebrate music rooted in connection, culture, and movement. Since then, the festival has continued its journey with stops across the West Coast, expanding to new audiences and growing into a signature celebration of island and reggae sounds.
